AlpineEco Nursery is a native plant nursery that specializes in wetland and riparian plants. We are one of the top suppliers of native wetland restoration plant materials in Colorado, and intend to continue to build our market share and reputation. We hire employees who take personal interest and pride in their work, are dedicated, reliable, efficient, and have a desire for learning and personal growth. Join us for an excellent opportunity to be a part of the restoration community and work with local and regional native plants.

Requirements:

- 5 years of commercial greenhouse management experience; a Bachelor's degree (or higher) in horticulture or related discipline
- Knowledge of greenhouse and greenhouse equipment, maintenance, irrigation, fertilizing, pest control, etc.
- Experience with all phases of plant propagation
- Strong ability to communicate with staff and clients
- Ability to work in a greenhouse environment and in variable weather conditions

Responsibilities:

- Overseeing and implementing daily operations
- Hiring, training, and scheduling of seasonal staff
- Managing and scheduling custom orders, speculative growing, live plant harvest, field installations, etc.
- Using spreadsheets and/or databases to track plant health, readiness, and inventory
- Following existing growing protocols and developing new growing techniques
- Conducting general maintenance and minor repairs of greenhouse equipment and vehicles, and scheduling contractors for repairs as needed
- Providing detailed bids for potential custom grows and installations
- Coordinating deliveries and installations
- Attending occasional trade shows or conferences as an AlpineEco representative

Compensation:

- Competitive pay commensurate with experience
- 401K Retirement Plan with 3% match
- Six paid holidays/year
- 40 hours paid time off/year
- Professional memberships
- Professional training
