About US

The premier retail nursery in Northern Colorado, Fort Collins Nursery has been the go-to spot for plant enthusiasts for over 90 years. We don't want to just grow the best plants, we also want to grow and support the best employees around! While many businesses may claim to be a great place to work, we have the proof to back up our claim: in our anonymous 2022 climate survey, 100% of respondents said they had a positive work-life balance, 83% said they were able to build on their skills, and 91% of employees would recommend working at Fort Collins Nursery. So, if you want to work for a top-notch local business while feeling valued and supported, look no further.
