In Memoriam

Donald McGirr - October 18, 1935 - December 5, 2021
Born in South Dakota, Don lived in Grand Junction and was an accomplished landscaper and long time nurseryman. In lieu of flowers, the family requests you plant a tree. If you wish to honor Don, donations can be made to the Grand Junction Hope West Hospice.

Help Recognize Outstanding Achievement

Each year CNGA solicits award nominations for people who have made a significant contribution to their company and/or the horticulture industry. These prestigious awards recognize leadership, positive impacts, professionalism, commitment and dedicated service. There are four categories: Hall of Fame, Horizon, Person of the Year and Exemplary Service. See a description of each award and past winners here. We invite you to submit your nomination today!

The deadline to submit award nominations is January 7.

3 Ways to Save $ on ProGreen Registration Fees

Progreen EXPO is less than two months away and now is the time when you can save money on your registration fees. Here are three ways to help your budget:

1. Early Bird Prices - must register by this Friday, December 17.
2. Group Discounts - sign up 2 or more people from your company.
3. Volunteer - commit to 8 hours and receive a complimentary full conference registration. Volunteer application deadline is January 30 - sign up on the registration form.

Is ProGreen worth it? Absolutely. You won't find a better combination of best-in-class industry education, an expansive trade show and networking with some of the best expertise in the business. There's nothing like it in the Rocky Mountain West! Sign up today!

PIONEER

Top Perennial Performers Announced

Each year the CSU Annual and Perennial Trial Gardens allow students, researchers and industry professionals to evaluate new plant varieties under the unique environmental conditions of the Rocky Mountain/High Plains region. The CSU Trials are one of the nation's top testing grounds for breeders and also help regional growers plan for the next season. Eight perennials from the 2021 trails were selected as "Top Performers." See the complete list here.
